

FRV TRAVEL – VILLA SABANA

Edition 10.2 August – September 2013

VILLA SABANA

If you don't believe in love at first sight, you certainly will after a visit to Villa Sabana. The romance begins as soon as you lock eyes on the sparkling infinity pool surrounded by swaying palm trees and overlooking verdant rice paddies. Pinch yourself, this is real.

The amorous feelings only deepen as you meet the team of delightful and dedicated staff, and as you find your way around this spacious and stylishly decorated, five-bedroom villa located in a charming seaside village in Bali's increasingly popular Canggu area.

Not only is Villa Sabana blessed with natural beauty, boasting lush, sprawling, tropical gardens, it also has a truly fabulous layout. The four separate pavilions ensure there is space aplenty to enjoy every holiday activity your heart desires whether it be fun and fabulous entertaining or quiet moments where you can breathe deeply and unwind. Chill out in the living room catching up on the bestselling holiday novel, feast with friends on the gorgeous teak dining table or watch a magical Balinese sunset from the colonial-style balcony with a gin and tonic in hand. The choice is yours.

Four of the bedrooms, each with stunning ensuite, are housed within the stately main pavilion, while another-contained pavilion, known as the 'Chinese Room', has its own private garden and is just perfect for guests desiring that extra level of privacy. The marble bathroom features a bathtub made for two. Need we say more?

Villa Sabana is an absolute kid's paradise too. Young ones will fall in love with the colourful, but ever so tasteful, twin bedrooms on the ground floor, each with their own ensuite and furnished with daybeds - perfect for sleepovers! Happy kids equals happy holidays and the family room is guaranteed to keep them entertained with its treasure trove of games, books, toys and movies.

Then, of course, there's the great outdoors. You would almost think the garden was designed for a game of hide and seek and the 18 metre-pool is perfect for a game of Marco Polo. While the youngsters are busy playing and being entertained by the caring and generous staff who will happily take them river fishing or teach them more gentler pursuits, such as making traditional offerings, you will have more time to relax poolside on a deckchair with nothing more to contemplate than what to order for dinner.

The complimentary car and driver means there's always the option to venture into Seminyak to experience some of the fine dining that Bali has become famous for or you can just sit back, relax and let your private chef whip up something magical in the kitchen.

As your holiday comes to an end, it will be hard to say goodbye to the friendly staff, and the beauty and luxury to which you will have become accustomed but true love never dies and there's always next year...

www.villasabana.com