The careful attention to design detail with the employment of handpicked soft furnishing textiles along with an exciting collecting of antiques from different parts of the Indonesian archipelago has ensured the creation of a flawless interior. Thatched roofs, lush gardens and cascading water features bring the villa into the good company of its natural surrounds.

The Longhouse integrates with its strategic location by providing 180-degree sweeping view of the Bukit Peninsula and beyond to a chain of majestic volcanoes that loom in the distance and are normally visible at noon. The night view of the island's southern plains ablaze with twinkling lights is nothing short of spectacular.

The Longhouse can accommodate up to 12 people through the 6 bedrooms. Four of these have king size beds while the other 2 have twin beds that can be converted into king size beds. Two extra beds are available on request at extra cost. The villa has an open fronted lounge as well as casual and formal dining areas. Facilities provided include home cinema and a play area for children equipped with toys, books and games and child facilities.

Guests may order meals from a selection of menus provided by the villa's chef. These menus cover Western, Asian, Italian, vegetarian and children's dishes.

A complimentary car with driver is also provided by the villa for those who wish to explore the area around Jemberan beach. For visit the cliff top temple of Lingsar, or the world famous and beaches around the Bukit Peninsula vicinity.
